

SECRET

28 December 1981

WEEKLY REPORT/CHECKLISTIntelligence Community Staff

-- Investigation of Aviation Week and Space Technology leak continuing.

Directorate of Administration

--

25X1

-- Briefings to Congressman Wolf and local citizens' groups regarding the proposed new building went smoothly.

--

25X1

-- No reports from DDO and DDS&T.

National Foreign Assessment Center

-- In response to DCI requests, work is continuing or completed on: alternatives to Yamal gas pipeline to Western Europe; Cuban and Ethiopian economic failures; economic failures in Eastern Europe; and estimating the dollar costs of Soviet defense activities.

--

25X1

-- Provided quick-response papers to DoD, Secret Service, State and FBI on the Libyan hit squads and the Dozier kidnapping.

-- Concern exists regarding possible upsurge in terrorism and increased coordination among terrorist groups, especially in Western Europe.

--

25X1

DD for National Foreign Assessment (John McMahon requested that periodic reports on his Community production activities be included in the checklist.)

-- Will provide you an evaluation of FY 1981-82 and FY 1982-83 production enhancement projects in early spring.

-- Results of Community canvass on relative priorities of 1985 Capabilities challenges at tab: All listed  first.

25X1

-- Preparing producer-coordinated answers to NITs of current interest; NITs will be revised in March.

SECRET

SECRET

National Intelligence Council

- SNIEs on short-term options in South Asia and Allied attitudes toward COCOM controls should be ready for 5 January NFIB.

General Counsel

--

25X1

- The Supreme Court has dismissed a petition for certiorari in Mackowski v. the United States, reaffirming the reluctance of the courts to intervene in matters involving national security.

--

25X1

Office of Personnel

- The health insurance coverage issue is still not resolved. We will issue a notice and implement new payroll deductions as soon as we get word from OPM.

Inspector General

--

25X1

Comptroller

--

25X1

Office of Policy and Planning

- Twenty-three analysts are attending/participating in several conferences this week: American Association of Teachers of Slavic and East European Languages Convention; American Historical Association Convention; and the American Economic Association meeting.

Upcoming Calendar:

- 5 January - Secretary of State breakfast (DCI/DDCI)
 - Meeting regarding COCOM (DDCI/ExDir)
 - NFIB

25X1

SECRET